Swimming Gala – message from Mr Lane

I am writing to remind you of the upcoming swimming galas. They will take place over two days in the afternoon at Virgin Active, Fulham Pools London SW6 7BQ.

The Year 8 and 9 competitions will take place on the afternoon of 15th May. The Year 7 and 10 competitions will take place on 24th May. All of the competitions will start at 12:30pm and finish by 4pm.

Your son will be accompanied by the Heads of House and the PE department to the pools. Your son will be dismissed from the swimming pools at 4pm. This has been done to minimise the number of lessons that your son will miss. Lunch will be provided in the form of a packed lunch.

All boys will be required to attend and compete in the races. The races are designed to allow all abilities to participate.

Please ensure that your son has a black or navy blue pair of swimming trunks, a towel and a pair of goggles by the dates stated above. It is likely to be hot in the swimming pool. Please ensure that your son brings a water bottle. He will be expected to sit in the spectators gallery and watch the other year group competing. This will need to be done in full school uniform (blazers may be removed).

Romeo and Juliet

Year 10 boys will receive a letter in their English lesson on Wednesday 9th May about a theatre trip to 'Romeo and Juliet' at the Barbican theatre on 29th November. This play is a set text for GCSE that the boys will be studying in Year 11 and we strongly recommend that as many boys attend as possible. Tickets will be allocated via ParentPay and are priced at £20.
